Xmas restaurant roleplay situation cards

Half of you are vegetarian.
Half of you are on a diet.
Half of you want to eat traditional food and the others want to eat something different.
You want a traditional Xmas dinner but not everyone is very hungry.
You all have different food allergies.
Everyone strongly dislikes at least one Xmas food.
At least some of the food needs to be kosher/ halal.
A small child will also be eating with you.
You have a very limited budget (= not much money).
You can't wait very long for the food, so can't order anything that will take a long time.
You have different ideas on what to order.
You don't understand some things on the menu.
You've never had a traditional Xmas dinner and so don't know what goes together.
You want to food which isn't on the menu (e.g. pumpkin pie).
One of you has planned Xmas dinner for tomorrow and so doesn't want anything similar.
Some dishes have already sold out.
Some dishes aren't cooked/ served the traditional way, so the waiter needs to explain.
It isn't obvious if things come together or need to be ordered separately.
Check the ingredients of some of the dishes.
You want to order some dishes but are allergic to at least one of the ingredients.
