

Emails from other countries guess the place

Choose a country and make up an imaginary email from that place. Continue to say what would be in that email until your partner guesses the country that it comes from, ending your email with a typical name from that country if your partner hasn't already guessed. If you use the model below to help, you can change it as much as you like (skipping sentences you don't know how to complete, etc).

Dear _____,

Happy New Year! Did you enjoy your holiday?

In my country, _____ is an important holiday. (We _____.)

How's the weather now in your country? In my country it's _____ now, but sometimes/ often/ usually it's _____.

There are many _____ people. People like _____.

People often wear _____ and _____.
Many people play _____.

The capital city of my country is _____ but I live in _____.

In my country there is/ are more _____ than in your country. In my country there is less _____ than in your country/ there are fewer _____ than in your country.

I'm sending you _____ as a gift/ present/ souvenir from my country.

Do you want to visit my country? Look forward to hearing from you.

All the best, _____

(typical name from that country)