

ESL Worksheet: Conditionals

Choose the correct answer.

Q1 - If you'd asked her, she could've gone with us.

- She will go.
- She might go.
- She didn't go.

Q2 - If I'd had the opportunity, I would have done a degree.

- I have the opportunity.
- I don't have the opportunity.
- I had the opportunity.
- I didn't have the opportunity.

Q3 - If I had her phone number, I'd ring her.

- I have her number.
- I don't have her number.
- I had her number.
- I didn't have her number.

Q4 - If I watch this show, I'll be bored.

- I have watched it.
- I want to watch it.
- I don't want to watch it.
- I didn't watch it.

Q5 - If I'd sold it you, I'd be rich now.

- I sold it.
- I didn't sell it.

Q6 - If they'd eaten their dinner, they wouldn't be hungry.

- They are hungry.
- They aren't hungry.

Q7 - If I'd married Katie, we would have been happy.

- I married Katie.
- I didn't marry Katie.
- I might marry Katie.

Q8 - If I bought an MP3 Player, I could get rid of my CDs.

- I will buy an MP3.
- I might buy an MP3.
- I have bought an MP3.

Q9 - If I moved to Australia, I could get a better job.

- I will move to Australia.
- I have moved to Australia.
- I am going to move to Australia.
- I might move to Australia.

Q10 - If the computer crashes, you'll lose any unsaved work.

- The computer has crashed.
- The computer will crash.
- The computer could crash.