

Describing places with Present Continuous games

Try to picture one of the places below in your head. Describe what you can see people doing in that place until your partner guesses where you are talking about. If they can't guess, you can also talk about what people aren't doing there.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ A (wo)man/ A boy/ A girl/ A child/ A customer is ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many men are ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many women are ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many children are ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many boys are ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many girls are ➤ Nobody is ➤ An animal is ➤ A dog is ➤ Two/ Three/ Some/ Many animals are 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● brush... ● buy... ● cook breakfast/ lunch/... ● dance ● drink coffee/ cola/... ● drive a car ● eat (...) ● fly a kite ● get changed/ change clothes ● have a shower/ a bath/... ● hold ● jump ● listen to music/... ● pay ● play baseball/ soccer ● play computer games ● play the piano/ the... ● play with a ball/ toy car/... ● practise the violin ● read a comic/ a book/... ● ride a bicycle/ a horse/ a... ● run ● shout ● sing a song/... ● sit (on...) ● sleep ● smell ● stand up ● study ● swim ● throw a ball ● wait ● walk ● wash the car/... ● watch television/ movies/... ● wear a uniform/ ...

Do the same, but with your partner drawing when you describe the scene.

Choose one of places below. Take turns drawing what each other says to make a picture of that place. Then compare pictures with another group, getting them to describe what they can see. Correct them on anything that they get wrong or they can't guess from the picture.
