

Recommendations with superlative practice

Ask your partner about their recommendations for things from the list on the next page below, listen to their ideas and then give them feedback on those suggestions.

OR

Give your partner recommendations on things in the list below and listen to their feedback.

Responses to recommendations

Strong positive responses

- That's perfect. In fact, I'm already planning to.../ I'm already going to...
- That's a great idea. I'll definitely do that./ That's an excellent suggestion. I'll do exactly what you said.

Weaker positive responses

- That seems like a good idea. I'll give it a try.
- You are probably right. I'll give it a go.
- That's not a bad idea. I'll try my best to do that.
- Hmm. That might be worth thinking about.

Negative responses

- I'm not so sure that's a good idea (because...)/ I'm not sure that would be suitable (in this case) (because...) Can you suggest anything else?
- Are you sure (that's a good idea)? Don't you think that...?
- Do you really think so? I would have thought that...
- Actually, ... already. (Do you have any other ideas?)

Ask about anything below which you couldn't understand or couldn't answer, each time discussing your recommendations as a class.

From memory or from your grammar knowledge, write the superlatives of the adjectives you talked about on the following page, starting with "the..." each time.

Check with the list with superlatives on the next page below.

Use those examples to make rules for making superlative adjectives.

Using those rules, make the comparative and superlative of these adjectives:
