

Used to, be used to and get used to discuss and agree

Give your opinion and ask for your partner's opinion to complete as many of the sentences below as you can with opinions that you share. If you have different opinions and can't convince each other, change sentence and/ or topic and try again.

We think that the most difficult thing about living abroad would be getting used to _____.

We think that (young) people (nowadays) have got too used to _____ and they would benefit from some time without it/ them.

Life used to be easier (in terms of _____) _____.

It isn't as easy to get used to _____ as most people think.

It's easier to get used to _____ than most people think.

Kids _____ in the past.

Teens and tweens _____ in the _____s.

Families _____ less (_____ ) in previous generations.

It's more difficult to get used to _____ than it is to get used to living on your own.

Old people find it difficult to get used to _____, but young people find it easy.

People didn't use to be so stressed/ unhappy/ worried (about _____) until _____.

People didn't use to _____ (so much), and that was probably a good thing.

_____ is easy for most people to get used to.

We think foreign people have difficulty getting used to _____ in our countries.

If _____ changed, it would be tough for most people to get used to it.

Share some ideas with another group or the whole class and try to find:

- things which you wrote which other groups didn't
- things that other people also agree with

Ask about any sentences that you couldn't complete, working together as a class to complete them each time.